A BRIEF HISTORY OF JOHN MORRISSEY

1831

Born in Templemore, Ireland, on February 12, 1831

1833

Morrissey's family immigrated to America & settled in Troy, NY in 1833. Desperate to escape poverty, Morrissey worked as a cargo thief & also as a collection agent for Irish crime bosses in the area.

1848

In 1848, Morrissey moved to New York City & became a deck-hand on a steamer, where he met & married the daughter of the ship's captain, Susie Smith. During his time in New York City, Morrissey acquired his infamous nickname, "Old Smoke" whilst brawling against Tom McCann inside a pistol gallery. Morrissey was pinned on his back atop burning coals from a stove that had overturned. Enraged, Morrissey rose to his feet & beat McCann senseless as smoke from his burning flesh rose up from his back. His nickname "Old Smoke" stuck with him throughout the rest of his life.

1851

Morrissey sailed to San Francisco, seeking fortune during the California Gold Rush. While he didn't have any luck in that endeavor, Morrissey became a renowned gambler & made a fortune winning gold from prospectors. It was during his time in California that Morrissey appeared for the first time in a professional prizefighting ring. On August 31, 1852 he defeated George Thompson at Mare Island, California in the 11th round, earning $5,000. This success encouraged him to return to New York to fight the American Champion, Yankee Sullivan.

1853

On Oct. 12, 1853 Morrissey boxed the Champion, Yankee Sullivan, in front of 3,000 spectators & won in the 37th round.

1861

Morrissey first came to Saratoga Springs in 1861 & operated a small gaming house on Matilda Street (Woodlawn Avenue). After establishing his first successful gaming house in Saratoga, Morrissey created the Saratoga Race Course with the help of William R. Travers, John R. Hunter & Leonard Jerome. The first races were held in August 1863. He knew that there was more money to be made, so Morrissey invested $190,000.00 to build "The Saratoga Clubhouse", a casino in Saratoga that attracted notable guests such as Chester A. Arthur, Rutherford B. Hayes, Ulysses S. Grant, Cornelius Vanderbilt, John D. Rockefeller & Mark Twain. Now known as the Canfield Casino.

1867

Morrissey became a Congressman & served two terms (1867-1871) in the 40th & 41st United States Congress. He eventually grew tired of the rampant corruption in Tammany Hall & left the House after his second term. He was elected as an Anti-Tammany Democrat to the New York State Senate in 1875 & was re-elected in 1877.

1878

Morrissey contracted pneumonia & passed away on May 1, 1878 in room 205 at the Adelphi Hotel, he was 47 years old. The state closed all offices & flags were flown at half-mast. The entire State Senate attended his funeral in Troy, held on May 4, 1878 & 20,000 mourners lined the streets to pay their last respects.
